SHORT BITS: Wednesday, Jan. 11

TICKETS: As of Thursday, Jan. 12, we are now on day-of-show pricing. $28 or $33 (seats with backs). Friday tickets are the hot item as Saturday is nearly sold out – call to check availability. Thursday night (newly added last year) is more than double the attendance of a year ago. You can still buy online at ProRodeoMontana.com (stay away from hack sites or scalpers) or go to the box office at the Pacific Steel & Recycling Arena, open daily at 11am until bull riding nightly.

Timed event contestants will earn awards for their equestrian partners Thursday at 2pm at the Heritage Inn. Top horses in Tie-Down Roping, Barrel Racing, Team Roping, Steer Wrestling and Breakaway Roping will be awarded. Watch ProRodeoMontana.com updates as these awards are posted only on our official website, and Facebook/Instagram pages #ProRodeoMontana.

Professional bullfighters will visit Loy Elementary School fifth graders Thursday afternoon in celebration of Patriot Night, thanks to a grant by the Montana Wheat & Barley Committee. They'll be talking "Gear Up For Rodeo" covering how rodeo reflects Montana agriculture through entertainment, and much more.

On the OFFICIAL site ProRodeoMontana.com, find each day's schedule. Thursday brings fans Patriot Night! presented by North 40 Outfitters. A special opening includes third graders from Belt Elementary and Loy Elementary Schools, the USAF Color Guard and farm and ranch producers from all over the state.
